

the two yellow terms are inherited from the binary-encoding lineage (one supervises the encoding, one supervises the task); the orange terms are what this project adds, and $\mathcal{L}_{\text{kin}}$ is what makes the three heads describe a single kinematically realisable curve.